RULES FOR NOMINATING THIRD PARTY DELEGATES / ALTERNATES

As far as ordinary members are concerned, delegates and alternates need not be on the payroll of the nominating carrier, provided that

(a) any person already representing another scheduled Air Carrier in BAR-AT may not be nominated as either delegate or alternate.

(b) The nomination must include the full name of the person and the local organization – if any – in which he/she is employed as well as the persons function in such organization.

(c) It must also include the name/department in the appointing carriers' organization responsible for this nomination and recipient of all related correspondence, invoices, etc.

(d) Once written confirmation of BAR-ATs acceptance of such request is received – and subject to para 3 below - persons nominated may represent and speak/vote on behalf of the appointing carrier in BAR-Austria.

(e) With the exception of invitations to meetings and other activities – which will be addressed to the nominated delegate with copy to the appointing carrier - all correspondence will be addressed directly to the appointing carrier.

(f) Equally it is the prerogative and sole responsibility of the appointing carrier to inform BAR-Austria about any relevant changes to the status of the nominated delegate, alternate and their organization.

In case neither the nominated delegate nor the alternate nominee are available for attending a certain meeting or event organized by BAR-Austria, a short term substitute is welcome to participate after prior notification and approval by BAR-AT Chairman.

By signing below we wish to inform that "BAR-Austria" processes Contact Persons, Representatives, Alternate Delegates, Non-carrier employees and third parties personal data (name, carrier legal name and head office address, company name and address, function/department, telephone and email) just as far as necessary for the performance of your BAR-Austria membership, that is particularly to publish (extraordinary) members and email-addresses of contact persons on the BAR-Austria-Website, and to inform about lectures, press releases and the organization of participation in cultural, political or other events via post, email and telephone.

This Application is further signed in knowledge and agreement with Articles of Association and Standing Order for the Conduct of Business of the Association BAR-Board of Airline Representatives in Austria, in its valid form.
